Note from Jim:

Due to another engagement, the team will not meet for Street Fishing this coming Saturday.

Scripture of the Week:

"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life." (John 5:24)

Quote of the Week:

"As a large fire begins with kindling of small twigs and branches, even so a large revival is preceded by the prayers of a few hidden seemingly insignificant souls." (Gary Amiraunt)

Recommended Resource:

Check out the new Mind Game tract from Living Waters.

It launches off of a classic card trick and into a gospel message. On the front side of the tract, the person is asked to pick a card and keep it in mind. When he turns the tract over, amazingly, the card he was thinking about is gone!

If you've never seen this trick before, it really does cause a momentary shock to the system. People's eyes widen in surprise, then seconds later they smile as realize how it was done. That moment of realization is used as the jumping off point for the gospel message.

If you like the curved illusion, you're going to love this one. Check it out online to see how it's done.

Adam must have come up with other things to say to Eve besides "bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh."

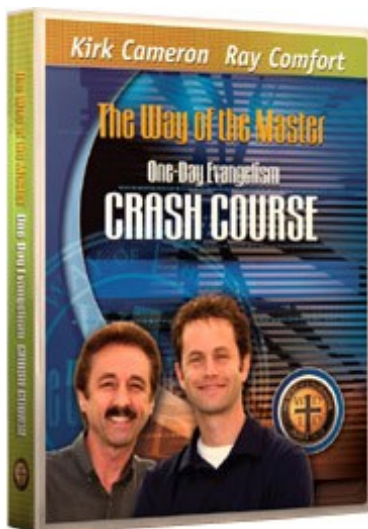

Questions & Objections:

This O&A comes from The Evidence Bible.

O. I hope I'm going to heaven when I die.

A. Of all the things that you should be sure of, it's your eternal destiny. To say "I hope I'm going to heaven" is like standing at the open door of a plane 25,000 feet in the air and, when asked "Have you got your parachute on?" answering with "I hope so." You want to know so -- and you can, simply by obeying the gospel. If you repent and place your faith in Jesus Christ, He will give you eternal life and you can know that your eternity is secure. These verses also make clear that those who refuse to trust in the Son of God can likewise know that they do not have eternal life --they will remain dead in their sins.

One-Day Way of the Master Training:

We would be glad to host a Way of the Master evangelism training for your church or small group. This one-day seminar is a proven, effective way to help people overcome their fear of witnessing and show them how to reach out to the lost. We will quickly equip those who attend to simply and effectively share their faith with family, friends, and strangers. What makes our training unique is when the classroom training is over, you have the option to hit the streets and immediately start to use the new tools you have just learned. The seminar consists of the following activities:

- Three powerful interactive messages that will equip the attendees in how to share the gospel effectively and biblically with anyone, anytime, anywhere.
- Quick Tips on how to have fun sharing your faith while overcoming your fears.
- Quick Tips on how to effectively witness one-2-one using the Way of the Master.
- Hands-on, in-the-trenches training with proven leaders.

The One-Day Way of the Master Training is FREE for the host and to all who attend.

 The Way of the Master has been commended by Franklin Graham, Dr. D. James Kennedy, David Wilkerson, Bill Gothard, John MacArthur, Ravi Zacharias, David Jeremiah, Joni Eareckson Tada, Josh McDowell, and many other Christian leaders.

Prayer Points:

- Pray for Living Waters New Zealand this week.
- "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest." (Matthew 9:37-38, NASB)

Weekly "Fishing" Report:

I had an appointment and wasn't able to take the team out last Saturday. In lieu of a fishing report, I thought I'd share something from our archives. This audio is from one of the chances I had to preach open air on the California State University Long Beach campus during the Reignite! GNN reunion.
