Scripture of the Week:

"For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse." (Romans 1:20, NASB)

Quote of the Week:

"First, then, before you can speak peace to your hearts, you must be made to see, made to feel, made to weep over, made to bewail, your actual transgressions against the Law of God." (George Whitefield)

Evangelism Resource:

Intelligent Design vs. Evolution Board Game

Evangelistic, educational, entertaining.

At last, a board game that reveals the insanity of perhaps the greatest hoax of our times -- the unscientific

"theory of evolution."

"Intelligent Design vs Evolution" is unique in that the playing pieces are small rubber brains and each team plays for "brain" cards. Each player uses his or her brains to get more brains, and the team with the most brains wins. It has been designed to make people think . . . and that's exactly what it does.

"Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron are doing much more than revealing the bankruptcy of molecules-to-man evolution. They have a greater purpose: proclaiming biblical authority and reaching the lost with the precious gospel message. Enjoy this wonderful family game as you also become better equipped to defend our precious Christian faith." -- Ken Ham, President, Answers in Genesis.

Questions & Objections:

This O&A comes from The Evidence Bible.

O. Adam was a mythical figure who never really lived.

A. Adam is a key figure in Scripture. He is described as the "first Adam," the one who brought sin into the world. He made it necessary for Jesus, the "last Adam," to atone for all humans, and then rise from the grave with the promise of complete redemption for fallen man and fallen creation. If Adam was just a myth, we would not be able to fully understand the work of Jesus. If Adam and Eve were not real, then we ought to doubt whether their children were real too, and their children... and then we ought to doubt the first 11 chapters of Genesis, and so on. All the genealogies accept Adam as being a literal person, so their children Cain and Abel (Genesis 4:9,10; Luke 11:50,51) must be real too. Jesus was descended from Adam, and it is impossible to be descended from a myth.

Weekly "Fishing" Report:

We held our second Way of the Master Evangelism Training on Saturday. We had seven people attend. Five of those were newcomers. Praise God!

I wanted to share a quick Glory Story from that night. One young woman had shown up late for the training. Her eye was red and swollen, and she told me that her baby had somehow scratched it. At the first break she asked us for prayer, so we gathered around to lay hands on her and pray. After that, she tried to endure another 20 minutes or so, but she couldn't see and the pain was just too much. She was obviously suffering and finally had to leave. At home she taped cotton over her eyes and took Vicodin to numb the pain enough to sleep.

The next morning, I saw her in church and her eye was completely healed. There was no sign of injury or even a scratch. God is good! I know it's not a story from a witnessing encounter, but God deserves praise and credit wherever and whenever we see Him move.

Pray that God will continue to raise up laborers and equip the Body of Christ to seek and save the lost. May we be the salt and light we are called to be, and may Jesus receive the honor that He is due.
