Scripture of the Week:

Whether, then, you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. (1 Corinthians 10:31, NASB)

Quote of the Week:

"It is now possible to live a 'christian life' without doing the things that Jesus commanded us to do. We have hired people to go into all the world, to visit those in prison, to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to care for widows and orphans. The average Christian doesn't have to do it." (Cal Thomas)

AFTER EDEN

by Dan Lietha

Questions & Objections:

This Q&A comes from The Evidence Bible.

Q. How can people be happy in heaven, knowing that their unsaved loved ones are suffering in hell?

A. Those who ask such questions fall into the category of those who asked Jesus a similar question. The Pharisees said that a certain woman had seven consecutive husbands, so whose wife will she be in heaven (Mark 12:23)? Jesus answered by saying that they neither knew the Scriptures nor the power of God. The unregenerate mind has no concept of God's mind or His infinite power. If God can speak the sun into existence; if He can see every thought of every human heart at the same time; if He can create the human eye with its 137,000,000 light-sensitive cells, then He can handle the minor details of our eternal salvation.

John writes that in heaven "we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is" (1 John 3:2), so perhaps we will be fully satisfied that God is perfectly just and merciful, and that He gave every individual the opportunity to accept or reject Him. However He works it out, God promises that there will not be sorrow or crying in heaven. Our focus in heaven won't be on our loss, but on our gain.

Weekly "Fishing" Report:

Our family was in Medford on Saturday, so I wasn't able to lead the team on the streets.

Todd Friel and Ray Comfort are currently in Europe with the rest of the crew filming Season 4 of The Way of the Master television program. They're busily witnessing, preaching open air and filming at various locations tied to the reformers and Christianity's heritage. In lieu of our team's "fishing" report, I thought you'd like to check out their blog to see what's happening and to pray for them.
